General Byelaws – These authorities byelaws have lapsed. Some LA's are reviewing their byelaws.

Housing (General) – Malew and Rushen only have a small number of general housing which they manage themselves; these being 8 (Malew) and 4 (Rushen).

Housing Issues/Nuisance (Disrepair/Damp/Drainage/Odour etc) – This function is undertaken on behalf of the local authorities by officers of the Department of Environment, Food and Agriculture.

Libraries – All of the Authorities labelled with * benefit from the mobile library every other week.

Additionally, some of the parishes pay a contribution or donation towards the use of library facilities of other areas; these being:-

- Arbory – Annual donation to Port Erin Library and Castletown Library.
- Braddan – Pay a contribution to Douglas which allows residents to use Henry Bloom Noble Library facility.
- Garff – Pay a contribution to Douglas which allows residents to use Henry Bloom Noble Library facility.
- Rushen – Pay a contribution to Port Erin Library.
- Santon – Full library facilities from Douglas Borough Council for a small number of residents.

Parking Control – Local authorities offered the opportunity to nominate one or more officers to be trained as parking controllers. (Ramsey commented that they presently do not undertake on street parking control duties, but the intention is to do so, although once able to provide this service, it would not be in the manner of accepting total responsibility but to work alongside DOI staff).
