Amendment

4 Power to amend

| The Department of Home Affairs may by order amend this Schedule.»

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order replaces Schedule 4 to the Proceeds of Crime Act 2008 (“the Schedule”). The Schedule has effect for the purpose of determining business in the regulated sector and what is a supervisory authority for the purposes of that Act.

Section 157 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2008 and section 68 of the Terrorism and Other Crime (Financial Restrictions) Act 2014 require a person carrying on a business in the regulated sector to institute and operate systems, procedures, record-keeping, controls and training specified in a code made by the Department of Home Affairs for the purposes of preventing and detecting money laundering and the financing of proliferation and terrorism. They also require persons carrying on, employed in or otherwise concerned in a business in the regulated sector to comply with such systems, procedures, record-keeping, controls and training.

The new Schedule provides that one of three Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism Codes applies to a business in the regulated sector, depending on its activities. A number of definitions have also been amended to address scope gaps that have been identified.
