(4) The Authority may by order amend the lists of enactments in subsections (2) and (3).¹⁰

4 Designated businesses

(1) Schedule 1 has effect.

- (2) Schedule 1 contains a list of –
- (a) certain Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions (“designated businesses”); and
 - (b) persons who are exempt from this Act or any of the provisions of this Act.
- (3) Schedule 1 may attach conditions to an exemption under subsection (2)(b).
- (4) The Authority, may by order, amend Schedule 1 so as to –
- (a) vary the list of designated businesses;
 - (b) add or delete any exemptions; or
 - (c) impose, delete or vary conditions of exemption.¹¹

5 Functions of Authority¹²

- (1) Without limiting its functions under any other enactment, the Authority is responsible for –
- (a) assessing compliance with ~~AML/CFT legislation~~ this Act and with any breach of a code made under section 157 (money laundering codes) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2008 or section 68 (codes relating to the financing of proliferation and terrorism) of the Terrorism and Other Crimes (Financial Restrictions) Act 2014; in relation to any designated businesses; and
 - (b) where any breach of that legislation is found, conducting investigations into any potential liability arising from that breach.¹³
- ~~(2) For the avoidance of doubt –~~
- ~~(a) the Authority is responsible for ensuring that it delegates a function to such person that it considers is competent to exercise the function; and~~
 - ~~(b) where a function is delegated by the Authority, the Authority is responsible for ensuring that any power or duty exercised in pursuance of the delegated function is exercised appropriately by the person to whom the function is delegated.~~

6 Delegation of functions of Authority¹⁴

- (1) The Authority may authorise any person it considers appropriate to exercise any of its functions under this Act.¹⁵
- (2) However –
- (a) no power to make orders may be delegated; and
 - (b) no authority may be granted except for the purpose of inspecting or investigating the affairs or any aspect of the affairs of the person specified in the authority.

- (3) Where such functions are to be exercised by another person that person must disclose to the Authority any information obtained in the course of exercising those functions.¹⁶
- (4) A person exercising any functions conferred by this section must, if required to do so by a person in relation to whom a function is being exercised, produce evidence of authority.
- (5) A person is not bound to comply with a requirement imposed by a person exercising powers conferred under subsection (1) unless, if required, such evidence of authority is produced.
- (6) Where functions are exercised by a person other than the Authority that person must –
 - (a) exercise the function in accordance with the requirements of the Authority; and
 - (b) disclose to the Authority such information as the authority may reasonably require about the manner in which the function is being exercised.

PART 2 – REGISTRATION

7 Prohibition on carrying on designated business if not registered

- (1) A person must not carry on, or hold itself out as carrying on, a designated business in or from the Island unless the person –
 - (a) is registered under this Act or exempted from being so registered;
 - (b) is acting in accordance with the terms of that registration or any condition on exemption; and
 - (c) complies with AML/CFT legislation.
- (2) A person is treated as carrying on a designated business –
 - (a) in the Island if the person –
 - (i) carries on a designated business from a permanent place of business maintained by that person in the Island; or
 - (ii) engages in the Island in one or more of the activities which constitute a designated business; or
 - (b) from the Island if the person is –
 - (i) a limited partnership registered in the Island under Part II (limited partnerships) of the Partnership Act 1909;
 - (ii) a company incorporated outside the Island that is registered under the Foreign Companies Act 2014;
 - (iii) a limited liability company formed under the Limited Liability Companies Act 1996;

- (iv) a company incorporated in the Island under the Companies Acts 1931 to 2004;
 - (v) a company incorporated under the Companies Act 2006;
 - (vi) a foundation established under the Foundations Act 2011; or
 - (vii) an individual resident in the Island, and carries on a designated business outside the Island.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1) a person is treated as holding itself out as carrying on, in or from the Island, a designated business if the person (whether inside or outside the Island) —
- (a) by means of any words in the name, title, content or address of a web site or page or an internet site or page;
 - (b) by means of any words in an email name or address or in the name, title or subject matter of an email; or
 - (c) by means of any words in a domain name, expressly or by implication indicates that the person, or another, carries on a designated business in, from or in connection with the Island, either on the person's own or another's behalf or as an intermediary for another.
- (4) A person who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and liable —
- (a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or to a term of custody not exceeding 12 months, or to both; or¹⁷
 - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine or to a term of custody not exceeding 2 years or to a fine, or to both.

8 Application for registration

- (1) A person who intends to carry on a designated business (“the applicant”) must apply to the Authority to be registered unless exempted from the requirement to register.¹⁸
- (2) The application must —
- (a) be in such form as the Authority may determine;¹⁹
 - (b) contain or be accompanied by such information as the Authority may reasonably require for determining the application including —
 - (i) the applicant's name;
 - (ii) a description of the designated business;
 - (iii) any address from which the applicant carries on or intends to carry on such business; and
 - (iv) details of any person who is a specified person in relation to the applicant; and²⁰

- (c) be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed, which is non-refundable.
- (3) In particular the information required may relate to whether or not the applicant or a specified person in relation to the applicant has been convicted of any of the offences mentioned in section 9(4) (fit and proper person test).
- (4) To assist in determining the application the Authority may require the applicant, or any person who is or is proposed to be a specified person in relation to the applicant, to provide such additional information as the Authority reasonably requires for determining the application, verified in such manner as the Authority may require.²¹
- (5) The applicant must notify the Authority immediately of any alteration or inaccuracy in any information supplied under this section or of any event that may affect the application in a material respect that the applicant becomes aware of prior to being notified of its determination.²²
- (6) An applicant may withdraw an application under this section by written notice to the Authority at any time before it is determined.²³

9 Grant or refusal of registration

- (1) On an application under section 8 (application for registration) the Authority must either register the applicant, with or without attaching conditions to the registration, or refuse the application in accordance with this section and inform the applicant of its decision.²⁴
- (2) The registration remains effective until revoked under section 11 or until a person is de-registered under section 12.
- (3) ~~The Authority must refuse to register an applicant if it is not satisfied that the applicant or a specified person in relation to the applicant is a fit and proper person.²⁵~~
- (3) ~~The Authority must refuse to register an applicant if it is not satisfied that —~~
 - ~~(a) the applicant or a specified person in relation to the applicant is a fit and proper person; or~~
 - ~~(b) the applicant is managed and controlled in the Island.~~
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a person may not be a fit and proper person if the person —
 - (a) has been convicted of an offence —
 - (i) under AML/CFT legislation;
 - (ii) under the law of a country or territory outside the Island if the conduct giving rise to the offence would constitute an offence under ~~sub-paragraph~~ ~~subparagraph~~ (i) if it had occurred in the Island;

Commented [A1]: In the current draft there are 2 subsection 3s. The first should be struck through to highlight its removal as the proposal is to replace with the second subsection 3 listed below,

- (iii) involving dishonesty (whether under the law of the Island or elsewhere);
- (iv) under a relevant Act; or
- (v) of perjury or conspiracy to pervert the course of justice (whether under the law of the Island or elsewhere);
- (b) is or has been the subject of any action with respect to any breach of a relevant Act or AML/CFT legislation;
- (c) has knowingly or recklessly provided misleading or false information in the application for registration; or
- (d) is otherwise considered by the Authority not to be fit and proper for reasons related to the risk of money laundering or the financing of terrorism.²⁶
- (5) The Authority may refuse to register an applicant if the application is not made in accordance with section 8.²⁷
- (6) The Authority may publish guidance setting out the criteria that it will normally apply in assessing whether or not to refuse, or attach conditions to, an application.²⁸
- (7) If the Authority refuses to register an applicant under this section it must give written reasons for so doing.²⁹

10 Conditions of registration

- (1) The Authority may attach conditions to any grant of registration under this Act and may amend, vary, substitute or revoke any such condition or attach new conditions.³⁰
- (2) The Authority must give the registered person notification of, and reasons for, the attaching of any condition under subsection (1) or any change with respect to such a condition.³¹

10A References to registration

- (1) The Authority may prescribe by order the manner in which a registered person must or may refer to the registered person's registration under this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), such a reference includes a reference to the registered person's registration in advertisements and other marketing material, in its letterheads, on the registered person's website, or otherwise making the fact of the registration known to the public.

10B Suspension of registration

- (1) The Authority may at any time suspend a registration granted under this Act instead of, or before, it exercises its power under section 11.

(2) The Authority must give written notice to the person concerned of any decision to suspend a registration under this section together with a statement of the reasons for the decision.

(3) Where the Authority suspends a registration under subsection (1), it must review the suspension on a regular basis.

11 Revocation of registration

(1) The Authority may revoke a registration granted under this Act on any of the following grounds –

- (a) that the Authority is not satisfied that the registered person or a specified person in relation to the registered person is a fit and proper person;³²
- (b) that the registered person, or a person acting on the registered person's behalf, has provided the Authority with any false, misleading or inaccurate information for the purposes of this Act;³³
- (c) that the registered person has failed to comply with any condition attached under section 10 (conditions of registration);
- (d) that the registered person has failed to comply with AML/CFT legislation;
- (e) that the registered person has failed to comply with a direction issued by the Authority under section 26;³⁴
- (f) that the registered person has failed to pay the annual fee required by section 13(1)(b);³⁵

(g) that the registered person is not managed and controlled in the Island;

(h) that the registered person has failed to submit an annual return to the Authority under section 13(1)(a);

(i) that the registered person has failed to pay a penalty imposed under section 30.

(2) If the Authority revokes a registration under this section it must notify the registered person in writing, giving reasons for its decision.³⁶

(3) As soon as practicable after revoking a registration under this section the Authority must take such steps (if any) as it considers appropriate to notify the public.³⁷

(4) If the registration was revoked on the grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(d), the Authority may refer the matter to the Attorney General for the purpose of obtaining the Attorney General's opinion as to whether there is sufficient evidence to justify proceedings under AML/CFT legislation.³⁸

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a person may not be a fit and proper person if any of the matters described in section 9(4) applies to that person.

12 De-registration

- (1) The Authority may de-register a registered person on any of the following grounds —
- (a) that the registered person has notified the Authority under section 19(b) (ceasing to carry on any designated business) and has requested to be de-registered;³⁹
 - (b) that the Authority is satisfied that the registered person is no longer required to be on the register.^{40 41}
- (2) As soon as practicable after a person is de-registered under this section the Authority must take such steps (if any) as it considers appropriate to notify the public.⁴²

PART 3 – OVERSIGHT

DIVISION 1 – RETURNS, INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATION

13 Annual returns and fees

- (1) A registered person must, for each year of registration, submit to the Authority —
- (a) an annual return as specified by the Authority; and⁴³
 - (b) such annual fee as may be prescribed.⁴⁴
- (2) The annual return must include —
- (a) a declaration as to the extent to which the registered person meets the requirements of AML/CFT legislation; and
 - (b) such other information as the Authority may require.⁴⁵

14 ~~On-site inspections~~ Inspections and investigations

- (1) The Authority may carry out inspections and investigations at a registered person's premises to assess the extent to which the registered person meets the requirements of this Act, AML/CFT legislation and its own procedures for compliance with them.⁴⁶
- (1A) The Authority may carry out such inspections and investigations as it considers appropriate without physical attendance at the registered person's premises.
- (2) The Authority may inspect the books, accounts and documents and investigate the transactions of a registered person.⁴⁷
- (3) The Authority has every power of entry and access as may be necessary for the purposes of subsection (1) and may take possession of all such Commented [A2]: Proposal is to include a new power for the Authority to create secondary legislation detailing the number of returns to be submitted in relation to VASPs. The addition in the Primary would allow for the Authority to create secondary legislation relating to the frequency of returns to be submitted by Virtual Asset Service Providers.

books, accounts and documents as, and for so long as, may be necessary for those purposes.⁴⁸

- (4) The Authority may take copies of all books, accounts and documents in its possession for the purposes of an inspection and investigation under this section.⁴⁹
- (5) The rights of entry and access under subsection (3) may be exercised only during reasonable hours.
- (6) The powers provided by this section may be exercised in relation to a person whom the Authority reasonably suspects of carrying on a designated business when not a registered person.⁵⁰

15 Requests for information

- (1) The Authority may request any person whom it reasonably believes may hold information that the Authority reasonably requires for performance of its functions under this Act to provide that information.⁵¹
- (2) In particular, the Authority may request information about —
 - (a) the affairs of a customer of a registered person;
 - (b) any body corporate that is or has at any relevant time been —
 - (i) a holding company, subsidiary or related company of the registered person;
 - (ii) a subsidiary of a holding company of the registered person;
 - (iii) a holding company of a subsidiary of the registered person; or
 - (iv) a body corporate in the case of which a shareholder controller of the registered person, either alone or with any associate, is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, more than 50% of the voting power at a general meeting or a meeting of the board of directors; and
 - (c) any partnership of which the person is or has at any relevant time been a member.⁵²

(2A) Any provision in an agreement (whether a worker's contract or not) between a worker and a registered person is void in so far as it purports to preclude a worker from making a disclosure described in subsection (2) to the Authority.

(2B) In subsection (2A) "worker" has the meaning given in Part IV (protected disclosures) of the Employment Act 2006 and includes any person engaged in any work and in any capacity for the registered person.

- (3) If it has made a request of a registered person the Authority may issue a direction under section 26 to that person to secure that effect is given to a request under subsection (1) or (2) and the direction must include a statement of reasons for its issue.⁵³

- (4) A statement by a person in response to the direction may not be used in evidence against that person in respect of any criminal proceedings except proceedings alleging contravention of section 22(1) (restrictions on disclosure of information).
- (5) The powers provided by this section may also be exercised in relation to a person who is, on reasonable grounds, suspected by the Authority of carrying on, or having carried on a designated business when not a registered person.⁵⁴

16 Power of Authority to require information⁵⁵

- (1) If, on an application made by the Authority, a justice of the peace is satisfied that there is good reason to do so for the purpose of investigating the affairs, or any aspect of the affairs, of any person so far as to do so is relevant to assessing compliance with AML/CFT legislation in relation to any designated business that the person is or was carrying on, or appears to be or to have been carrying on, the justice may by written instrument authorise the Authority to exercise the powers under this section, which powers are not otherwise exercisable.⁵⁶
- (2) The Authority may, by notice in writing, accompanied by a copy of the instrument issued by the justice of the peace under subsection (1), require the person whose affairs are to be investigated or any other person whom it has reason to believe has relevant information, to attend before the Authority at a specified time and place to answer questions or otherwise furnish information with respect to any matter relevant to the investigation.⁵⁷
- (3) The Authority may, by notice in writing, accompanied by a copy of the instrument issued by the justice of the peace under subsection (1), require any person to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or copies of documents that appear to the Authority to relate to any matter relevant to the investigation or any information of a specified class that appear to it so to relate.⁵⁸
- (4) If documents or copies of documents are not produced as required under subsection (3), the Authority may require the person who was required to produce the information or copies to state, to the best of that person's knowledge and belief, where they are.⁵⁹
- (5) If any documents are produced as required under subsection (3), the Authority may —
 - (a) take possession of all such documents for as long as the Authority considers necessary;⁶⁰
 - (b) take copies or extracts from them; or

- (c) require the person producing them to provide an explanation of any of them.⁶¹
- (6) A statement by a person in response to a requirement imposed under this section may not be used in evidence against that person in respect of any criminal proceedings except proceedings alleging contravention of —
 - (a) section 18(2)(a); or
 - (b) section 22(2) (offence for contravening restriction on disclosure of information).
- (7) Where a person claims a lien on a document, its production under this section is without prejudice to the lien.

17 Search warrants

- (1) Where, on information on oath laid by the Authority, a judge is satisfied, in relation to any documents, that there are reasonable grounds for believing —
 - (a) that —
 - (i) a person has failed to comply with an obligation under section 16 (power of Authority to require information) to produce them or copies of them;⁶²
 - (ii) it is not practicable to serve a notice under section 16(3) in relation to them; or
 - (iii) the service of such a notice in relation to them might seriously prejudice the investigation; and
 - (b) that they are on premises specified in the information, the judge may issue such a warrant as is mentioned in subsection (2).⁶³
- (2) That warrant is a warrant authorising any person named in it —
 - (a) to enter (using such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose) and search the premises; and
 - (b) to take possession of any documents appearing to be documents of the description specified in the information, or to take in relation to any documents so appearing any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them and preventing interference with them.
- (3) If, during the course of a search of premises for documents of a description specified in the information, other documents are discovered that appear to contain evidence in relation to any offence, the person named in the warrant may —
 - (a) take possession of those documents; or

- (b) take in relation to them any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them and preventing interference with them.
- (4) A person executing a warrant issued under subsection (1) must be accompanied by a constable.

18 Offences in connection with inspections and investigations

(1) A person who —

(a) knows or suspects that —

- (i) an inspection is being or is likely to be carried out under section 14 (~~on-site~~ inspections and investigations);
- (ii) information is being or is likely to be requested under section 15 (requests for information); or
- (iii) information is being or is likely to be required under section 16 (power of Authority to require information) or 17 (search warrants); and⁶⁴

- (b) falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of, or causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of, information that the person knows or suspects is or would be relevant to such an inspection or investigation or is or would be requested, is guilty of an offence unless the person proves that the person had no intention of concealing facts disclosed by the information from persons carrying out such an inspection or investigation or requesting such information.

(2) A person who —

- (a) without reasonable excuse fails to comply with a requirement imposed on the person under section 16; or
- (b) intentionally obstructs a person exercising powers conferred by section 14, or section 17(2) or 17(3),

is guilty of an offence.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable —

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or to custody for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both; or⁶⁵
- (b) on conviction on information to a fine or to custody for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both.

DIVISION 2 – INFORMATION

19 Supply of information

A registered person must notify the Authority within any period specified in an order under section 30 (civil penalties) –

- (a) of any change in the information required to be given to the Authority under section 8 (application for registration); or⁶⁶
- (b) if that person has ceased to carry on a designated business in respect of which the Authority registered that person.^{67 68}

20 Offences in connection with supply of information

~~(1) — A person who fails to give a notice required under section 19(a) without reasonable excuse is guilty of an offence.~~

(2) A person who –

- (a) furnishes or sends to the Authority for any purpose under this Act information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular;⁶⁹
- (b) recklessly furnishes or sends to the Authority for the purposes of this Act information that is false or misleading in a material particular; or⁷⁰
- (c) in furnishing information to the Authority for the purposes of this Act –
 - (i) makes a statement that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (ii) recklessly makes a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular;⁷¹

is guilty of an offence.

(3) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to furnish information that the person is required to furnish to the Authority under this Act is guilty of an offence.⁷²

(4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable –

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or to custody for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both; or⁷³
- (b) on conviction on information to a fine or to custody for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both.

21 Legal privilege

A person is not under an obligation under this Act to disclose any information subject to legal privilege within the meaning of section 13 (meaning of “items subject to legal privilege”) of the Police Powers and Procedures Act 1998.

22 Restrictions on disclosure of information

(1) If restricted information relating to the business or other affairs of any person has been obtained it must not be disclosed by the primary recipient, or by any person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from the primary recipient unless —

- (a) the person to whom it relates has consented; or
- (b) the disclosure falls within the exceptions set out in Schedule 2.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or to custody for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both.⁷⁴

(3) In this section —

“restricted information” means information obtained by the primary recipient for the purposes of, or in the discharge of the primary recipient’s functions by or under, this Act (whether or not by virtue of any requirement to supply it made by or under this Act), other than information made available to the public by virtue of its being disclosed in any circumstances in which, or for any purpose for which, disclosure is not precluded by this section; and

“primary recipient” means —

- (a) the Treasury and its members;
- (b) the Authority and its members; and⁷⁵
- (c) any officer or employee of any such person.

22A Freedom of Information Act 2015

Where the disclosure of information is prohibited by this Act, that information is absolutely exempt information for the purposes of section 27 of the Freedom of Information Act 2015 (information the disclosure of which is restricted by law).

23 Auditors to report prescribed matters to Authority⁷⁶

(1) If an auditor knows or becomes aware of prescribed matters while discharging any of the auditor’s functions (whether under this Act or otherwise) in relation to a registered person the auditor must report those matters to the Authority.⁷⁷

(2) The Authority may, after consultation with the Treasury, the Department of Home Affairs and such other body or bodies as appear to the Authority to represent the interests of auditors in the Island, prescribe the matters mentioned in subsection (1).⁷⁸

24 Register and publication of information about registered persons

- (1) The Authority must keep a register of registered persons containing –
 - (a) the name of each such person;
 - (b) the description of the designated business carried on by such person (whether currently or in the past); and
 - (c) the principal address in the Island from which the person carries on, or used to carry on, the business.⁷⁹
- (2) However, the register may contain any information in respect of a formerly registered person only for up to one year after that person ceased to be registered.
- (3) The Authority must publish the information contained in the register on the Authority's website.⁸⁰
- (4) The Authority may offer for sale copies of information published under this section at a reasonable charge.⁸¹

DIVISION 3 – ACTION AND ENFORCEMENT

25 Report and action to be taken

- (1) The Authority may make a report of its findings resulting from an ~~on-site~~ inspection under section 14(1) (~~on-site~~ inspections and investigations).⁸²
- (2) The report may specify –
 - (a) any failure to meet the requirements of this Act, AML/CFT legislation or its own procedures;
 - (b) any action the registered person must take to rectify the failure; and
 - (c) the timescale for the taking of such action.
- (3) If the registered person fails to take the action to the satisfaction of the Authority within that timescale the Authority may issue a direction under section 26 directing the registered person to take the action within a further timescale.⁸³

26 Directions

- (1) The Authority may issue written directions under this section to a registered person.⁸⁴
- (2) A direction may –
 - (a) require the person to whom it is directed to take such action in respect of a designated business as is specified in the direction;

- (b) impose such requirements as are necessary to secure that any designated business carried on by that person is in whole or in part suspended or discontinued; or
- (c) require the person concerned to provide to the Authority a report on any other matter that the Authority considers appropriate, in such form as specified in the direction, by a person with relevant professional skills nominated by, or considered acceptable to, the Authority,⁸⁵ and must include a statement of reasons for its issue.

- (3) The Authority may revoke or vary a direction under this section and the requirement in subsection (2) to give a statement of reasons applies to a variation as it applies to the issue of a direction.⁸⁶

26A Directions: persons unfit to be specified persons

- (1) In this section a reference to a registered person includes a reference to an applicant for registration.
- (2) If a registered person does not satisfy the Authority that a person is a fit and proper person to be appointed as a specified person in relation to a registered person (whether or not that person is or has previously been considered as such a fit and proper person) the Authority may direct that such person must not, without the written consent of the Authority, be appointed as such specified person.
- (3) If, on reasonable grounds, it appears to the Authority that any specified person of a registered person, is not a fit and proper person to continue as such, the Authority may direct that such person must not, without the written consent of the Authority, continue as such a specified person.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) and (3), a person may not be a fit and proper person if any of the matters described in section 9(4) applies to that person.
- (5) The Authority must give written notice to the person concerned and to the registered person of any decision to make a direction under this section together with a statement of the reasons for the decision.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), where a notice has been given under subsection (5), the direction shall take effect —
 - (a) if no appeal under section 33 is made within the period prescribed for the purposes of such an appeal, on the expiry of that period; or
 - (b) if there is an appeal under section 33 —
 - (i) where the appellant abandons the appeal, on the date of abandonment; or
 - (ii) where the decision of the Authority is confirmed, on the date of confirmation; or

- (iii) where the decision of the Authority is varied, on such date as the Tribunal constituted under section 33 directs.
- (7) If the Authority is of the opinion that a direction should have immediate effect, the notice under subsection (5) shall contain a statement to that effect together with the reasons for that opinion, and the direction shall have effect on the giving of the notice.
- (8) Any direction by the Authority under subsection (1) or (2) may be —
(a) given subject to conditions;
(b) varied from time to time; and
(c) revoked at any time.
- (9) The Authority must give written notice to the person concerned of any decision to exercise the powers conferred by subsection (8)(a), (b) or (c).
- (10) No person shall accept or continue in any appointment as a specified person in contravention of a direction under subsection (2) or (3).
- (11) A registered person must not appoint a person in contravention of a direction under subsection (2) or (3).
- (12) It shall be the duty of a registered person to take reasonable care not to continue the appointment of a person in contravention of a direction under subsection (3).

26B Warning notices

- (1) The Authority may —
(a) before making a direction under section 26A; or
(b) in any other circumstances that the Authority considers it appropriate to do so, give a written warning notice under this section to a registered person or any person connected to the registered person.
- (2) A warning notice under this section is a notice that the Authority has grounds to believe that such activities or circumstances as are specified in the notice are prejudicial to the notified person's fitness and propriety and must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for the giving of the notice.
- (3) A warning notice may (but need not) —
(a) propose that the notified person take such action as is specified in the notice;
(b) request the notified person to propose action; or
(c) specify action that the notified person must take and the time within which it must be taken.

- (4) Where a warning notice has been given under this section, the Authority must before making a direction under section 26A(2) or (3) take into account any action taken by the notified person in response to the warning notice.
- (5) The giving of a warning notice under this section —
- (a) does not limit the powers of the Authority under section 26A; and
 - (b) is not required before the Authority may exercise those powers.
- (6) A warning notice issued under this section shall have effect —
- (a) for a period of up to 3 years from the date on which it is issued under subsection (1) and such period shall be specified in the notice; or
 - (b) until such time as the Authority is content that any action under subsection (4) has been completed to its satisfaction.
- (7) The Authority may disclose the circumstances surrounding a warning notice to —
- (a) an employer who currently employs a notified person;
 - (b) a person who has received an employment or engagement application from a notified person who, if successful in the application, would be required to be a director, money laundering reporting officer, compliance officer or controller of a registered person; or
 - (c) a company of which a notified person is, or is likely to become an officer.
- (8) In subsection (7) —
- “notified person” means a person to whom a notice under subsection (1) has been given that is still effective in accordance with subsection (7); and
- “officer” means an officer of a company for the purposes of the Company Officers (Disqualification) Act 2009 (see section 1(2) of that Act).

27 Public statements

- (1) The Authority may issue public statements relating to any of the following —
- (a) with respect to, or setting out, any direction that it has given under section 26;
 - (b) concerning a person if that person appears to the Authority to have committed a contravention of any of the following —
 - (i) section 7 (prohibition on carrying on designated business if not registered);
 - (ii) a condition attached under section 10 (conditions of registration);

- (iii) a direction given under section 26;
 - (iv) AML/CFT legislation;⁸⁷
- (c) concerning a person that the Authority considers is carrying on a designated business, whether in the Island or elsewhere, and it appears to the Authority to be desirable to issue the statement in the best interests of the public.^{88 89}
- (2) If a public statement will identify any registered person, the Authority must serve notice on the person before issuing the public statement.⁹⁰
- (3) If a public statement will identify any person who is not a registered person and at any time before the Authority issues the public statement it is reasonably practicable for it to serve notice on the person, the Authority must do so.⁹¹
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) or (3) must —
 - (a) give the reasons for issuing the statement;
 - (b) give the proposed or actual date of issue of the statement;
 - (c) contain a copy of the statement;
 - (d) give particulars of the right of appeal under section 33 (appeals) in respect of the statement; and
 - (e) if the statement is issued, in accordance with a decision under section 28(2)(b) (notice period for public statements), before the day specified in section 28(1) in relation to the statement, give the reasons for issuing it before that day.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not require the Authority —
 - (a) to specify any reason that would in the Authority's opinion involve the disclosure of confidential information the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to a third party; or⁹²
 - (b) to specify the same reasons, or reasons in the same manner, in the case of notices to different persons about the same matter.⁹³

28 Notice period for public statements

- (1) If service is required under section 27(2) or 27(3) in relation to a public statement, the Authority must not issue the public statement earlier than one month after the date of that service.⁹⁴
- (2) However, the Authority may issue the statement on or after an earlier date if —
 - (a) each of the persons identified in the relevant public statement agrees to that date; or
 - (b) the Authority decides on reasonable grounds that the interest of the public in the issue of the relevant public statement on that earlier date outweighs any detriment to the persons identified in the statement as a result of such issue.⁹⁵ ⁹⁶

- (3) In making a decision under subsection (2)(b), the Authority is not prevented from choosing as the date of issue of a public statement the date of service (if any) of notice of the statement.⁹⁷
- (4) Despite this section, if an appeal is made to the Tribunal and the Tribunal orders that the statement not be issued before any specified date or event, the Authority must not issue the statement before the date or event so specified.⁹⁸

29 Injunctions and remedial orders

- (1) If, on the application of the Authority, the Court is satisfied that it is likely that a person will contravene (or continue or repeat a contravention of) —
- (a) section 7 (prohibition on carrying on a designated business if not registered);
 - (b) a condition of registration attached under section 10 (conditions of registration);
 - (c) section 19 (supply of information);
 - (d) a direction given under section 26; or
 - (e) AML/CFT legislation,
- the Court may if it thinks fit issue an injunction restraining that person from committing (or, as the case may be, continuing or repeating) the contravention.⁹⁹
- (2) If, on the application of the Authority, the Court is satisfied that there are steps that could be taken to remedy the contravention, the Court may make an order requiring that person, or any other person who appears to the Court to have been knowingly concerned, to take such steps as the Court may direct to remedy the contravention.¹⁰⁰

~~30 Civil penalties~~

- ~~(1) If the Authority is satisfied that a person is in breach of section 7 (prohibition on carrying on a designated business if not registered) or has failed to —~~
- ~~(a) comply with a condition attached under section 10 (conditions of registration);~~
 - ~~(b) submit the annual return required under section 13(1)(a) (annual returns and fees) or any information to be submitted with the return, as required by the Authority;¹⁰¹~~
 - ~~(c) pay the annual fee required by section 13(1)(b);~~

- ~~(d) — give a notice required under section 19(b) (supply of information) without reasonable excuse; or~~
- ~~(e) — comply with a direction issued under section 26,~~
~~it may require that person to pay a penalty of such amount as may be prescribed in respect of the contravention.¹⁰²~~
- ~~(2) — However, no penalty may be required under this section if —~~
- ~~(a) — the Authority revokes or intends to revoke the registered person's registration under section 11(1) (revocation of registration); or¹⁰³~~
- ~~(b) — criminal proceedings have been commenced in respect of the contravention.~~
- ~~(3) — If the Authority intends to impose a penalty, it must give notice in writing to the person concerned giving notice of the decision, the amount of the penalty it proposes to impose and the reasons for the decision.¹⁰⁴~~
- ~~(4) — The Authority may prescribe additional circumstances in which a civil penalty may be imposed in lieu of criminal proceedings under this Act.¹⁰⁵~~
- ~~(5) — An order under this section may make further provision about civil penalties.~~
- ~~(6) — Any amount received as a penalty is paid into and forms part of the General Revenue of the Island.~~

30 Civil penalties

- ~~(1) If the Authority is satisfied that a person specified in an order under subsection (6) —~~
- ~~(a) has contravened, or caused the contravention of, any provision of this Act;~~
- ~~(b) has contravened, or caused the contravention of, any prohibition or requirement imposed under this Act; or~~
- ~~(c) in purported compliance with any such requirement, has furnished the Authority with false, inaccurate or misleading information.~~
~~it may require the person to pay a financial penalty in respect of the contravention.~~
- ~~(2) The Authority must give written notice to the person concerned of any decision under subsection (1), together with a statement of the reasons for the decision.~~
- ~~(3) If the person does not appeal the decision of the Authority under section 33, the financial penalty must be paid within such period as may be specified by order under subsection (6).~~
- ~~(4) If the person appeals the decision of the Authority and on the determination of the appeal any amount of the financial penalty remains~~ payable, that financial penalty must be paid within 14 days of the determination of the appeal.

(5) The Authority may not in respect of any such contravention —

- (a) both require a person to pay a financial penalty under this section and revoke the person's registration under section 11(1); or
- (b) require a person to pay a financial penalty under this section if criminal proceedings have been commenced in respect of the contravention.

(6) The Authority must make an order —

- (a) specifying the persons it may require to pay a financial penalty under subsection (1);
- (b) specifying the maximum amount of financial penalty which the Authority may impose on a person under subsection (1);
- (c) specifying the amount or method of calculation of financial penalty it may impose in respect of a matter mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (d) specifying any contravention under this Act in respect of which the power of the Authority to require payment of a financial penalty applies.

(7) Despite subsection (5), the Authority may revoke a registration of a person under section 11 if the person has failed to pay a financial penalty within the time limit imposed on the person for that financial penalty to be paid.

(8) Any amount received as a financial penalty shall be paid into and form part of the General Revenue of the Island.

(9) A financial penalty may be enforced as if it were a debt owed by the person on whom it was imposed to the Authority.

30A Contravention of statutory provisions

Except as otherwise provided for in this Act, if a person contravenes any statutory provision of or under this Act, the Authority may exercise any power under this Act to address the contravention as the Authority considers appropriate in the circumstances.

PART 4 – SUPPLEMENTARY

31 Information and advice

- (1) The Authority may provide such information and advice as it considers appropriate with respect to —
 - (a) the functions of the Authority under this Act; and¹⁰⁶

- (b) any other matters about which it appears to the Authority to be desirable to give information or advice.^{107 108}
- (2) The Authority may –
 - (a) publish the information and advice; and
 - (b) offer copies of it for sale at a reasonable price.¹⁰⁹

32 Guidance

- (1) The Authority may –
 - (a) prepare and issue guidance for the purpose of establishing sound principles for compliance by registered persons with this Act and AML/CFT legislation;
 - (b) revise any such guidance by revoking, varying, amending or adding to its provisions; and
 - (c) indicate in any such guidance if and to what extent it is or is not to apply to any designated business carried on by registered persons.¹¹⁰
- (2) The Authority must cause any guidance issued under this section to be published, and may make such arrangements as it thinks fit for such distribution, including causing copies of the guidance to be put on sale to the public at a reasonable price.¹¹¹
- (3) The Authority may issue different guidance in respect of different types of designated businesses.¹¹²
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), a failure on the part of any person to follow any aspect of the guidance issued under this section does not of itself render any person liable to proceedings of any kind or invalidate any transaction, but such guidance is admissible as evidence in any proceedings.
- (5) In determining whether a person's conduct amounts to a contravention of any requirement of this Act, non-compliance by the person with any aspect of the guidance or any relevant provision of a code issued under AML/CFT legislation, may be relied on as tending to establish liability.
- (6) In any proceedings under this Act or otherwise, any guidance issued under this section is admissible in evidence if it appears to the court or tribunal conducting the proceedings to be relevant to any question arising in the proceedings, and must be taken into account in determining any such question.
- (7) A copy, certified in writing on behalf of the Authority to be an accurate copy of the guidance or any aspect of it, is admissible in evidence in all legal proceedings as the original and as evidence of any fact stated in it of which direct oral evidence would be admissible.¹¹³

33 Appeals

- (1) A person aggrieved may appeal, in accordance with rules made under section 8 (rules of procedure) of the Tribunals Act 2006, to the Tribunal on the grounds that any of the following decisions of the Authority was unreasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case —
- (a) refusal to register the person under section 9 (grant or refusal of registration);
 - (b) attaching conditions to the grant of registration to the person or amending, varying, substituting or revoking any condition so attached under section 10 (conditions of registration);
 - (ba) suspension of the person's registration under section 10B(1) (suspension of registration);
 - (c) revocation of the person's registration under section 11(1) (revocation of registration);
 - (d) de-registration of the person's registration under section 12(1)(b);
 - (e) issue of a direction to the person under section 26;
 - (f) refusal to revoke or vary a direction to the person under section 26(3);
 - (fa) issue of a direction to the person under section 26A(1) or (2);
 - (g) issue of a public statement to the person under section 27 (public statements) (which appeal may be made before or after the issuing of the statement); or
 - (h) imposition of a civil penalty on the person under section 30 (civil penalties).¹¹⁴
- (2) On the determination of an appeal under this section the Tribunal must confirm, vary or revoke the decision in question.
- (3) Any variation or revocation of a decision does not affect the previous operation of that decision or anything duly done or suffered under it.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), a decision of the Tribunal on an appeal under this section is binding on the Authority and the applicant.¹¹⁵
- (5) An appeal lies to the Court, in accordance with rules of court, on a question of law from any decision of the Tribunal.

34 Liability of officers of bodies corporate

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) apply where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate and it is proved that the offence —
- (a) was committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the body; or
 - (b) was attributable to neglect on the part of an officer of the body.
- (2) The officer, as well as the body, is guilty of the offence.

- (3) If an individual is convicted of an offence under this Act by virtue of subsection (2), that individual is liable to the penalty provided for the offence.
- (4) In this section “officer” has the meaning assigned by section 1(2) of the Company Officers (Disqualification) Act 2009.

34A Fees

The Authority may by order prescribe in connection with the discharge of any of its functions under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2008 or the Terrorism and Other Crime (Financial Restrictions) Act 2014 such amount as the Authority considers is reasonable to cover the cost of discharging the function (including a reasonable proportion of the Authority’s administrative and overhead expenses).

35 Orders

- (1) The Authority may by order prescribe any matter that is to be, or may be, prescribed under this Act.¹¹⁶
- (2) An order under this Act may contain such transitional, consequential, incidental or supplementary provisions as appear to the Authority to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order.¹¹⁷
- ~~(3) Section 31 of the Legislation Act 2015 (which makes provision concerning the affirmative Tynwald procedure) applies to an order under this Act other than an order under section 2.¹¹⁸~~
- ~~(3) An order under this Act (other than an order under section 2) must be laid before Tynwald as soon as practicable after it is made, and if Tynwald at the sitting at which the order is laid or at the next following sitting fails to approve it, the order ceases to have effect.~~
- (4) Before making an order under this Act (other than an order under section 23 (auditors to report prescribed matters to Authority), the Authority must consult —
 - (a) the Treasury;
 - (b) the Department of Home Affairs; and
 - (c) any other body or person that the Authority considers appropriate.^{119 120}

36 Transitional provisions

- (1) Despite anything in this Act, no offence is committed under section 7 by a person who carried on a designated business immediately before the coming into operation of that section.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only —
 - (a) for 6 months following the coming into operation of section 7; or

- (b) if the person applies for registration under section 8 (application for registration) within that 6 month period, until the application is finally determined (including as a result of an appeal under section 33 (appeals)) or is withdrawn.

37 Minor and consequential amendments

- (1) Schedule 3 has effect.
- (2) This section and Schedule 3 are automatically repealed —
 - (a) on the day after the promulgation of this Act; or
 - (b) if all of this section and Schedule 3 are not in operation on its promulgation, on the day after the last provision of this section or that Schedule is brought into operation.
- (3) However, the repeal does not affect the continuing operation of any amendments to enactments made by this Act.
