Individual arrested and charged with a criminal offence
Appears before the Summary Courts
If the offence is a summary offence only
Proceedings continue in the Summary Courts
If the offence is an "either way" offence and is likely to attract more than 2 years custody, if the individual is found guilty.
Send to Court of General Gaol Delivery
If the offence is treason, or murder, or a serious or complex fraud matter.
Send to Court of General Gaol Delivery
If the "either way" offence is not likely to attract more than 2 years custody, if the individual is found guilty.
Proceedings continue in the Summary Courts